

BE NOT AFRAID

(Melita. L. M.)

Sir. F. E. Smith

I. B. Woodbury

1. When pow'r di - vine, in mor - tal form, Hush'd with a
 2. So when in si - lence na - ture sleeps, And lone - ly
 3. And when the last dread hour shall come, While trem - b'ling word the rag - ing storm, In sooth - ing ac - cents

 watch the mour - ner keeps, One thought - ing ev - 'ry na - ture waits her doom, This voice shall shall wake the

Je - sus said, "Lo, it is I; be not a - fraid."
 pang re - move, Trust, fee - ble is man, thy Mak - er's love.
 right - eous dead— "Lo, it is I; be not a - fraid."