

SWEET TO-DAY

"...If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away;
 behold, all things are become new" (II Corinthians 5:17).
(As Alto and Tenor duet, Alto take Soprano notes to refrain, then Tenor take Soprano part.)

F. E. B.

F. E. Belden

1. I cease to sing of sweet to - mor - row, With self - ish
 2. I am so hap - py when I'm tell - ing How great His
 3. If but to gain a home in glo - ry The Sa - viour
 4. His love is life, His love is heav - en, E - ter - nal thought to be a - way; There is a ho - lier balm for pow'r, how great His love; Were there no praise where God is trod this earth a - lone, There ne'er had been a gos - pel life, e - ter - nal bliss; Ac - cept it free - ly, be for - sor - row, I find in Christ a sweet to - day.

 dwell - ing, It would be pain to live a - bove.
 sto - ry, He ne'er had left His roy - al throne.
 giv - en, And taste the fu - ture world in this.

SWEET TO-DAY (2)

Refrain

A ris - en Christ, a liv - ing Sa - viour, Not in the tomb where once He lay. When - e'er I tell His lov - ing fa - vor, Sweet by and by is ev - 'ry day.

rit.

Copyright, 1899, by F. E. Belden

“Every day we are making our history.
Yesterday is beyond our amendment or control; today only is ours.
Then let us not grieve the Spirit of God today,
for tomorrow we shall not be able to recall what we have done.
Today will then be yesterday.”