

HOLD ON

"...Be not weary in well doing" (II Thessalonians 3:13).

John P. Ellis

Robert Lowry

1. If your hand's on the plow, hold on, hold on; Tho' the soil may be ster - ile and
 2. If your heart's in the work, hold on, hold on; Tho' the way should be gloom - y and hard, The plow - share will make the fal - low ground break, And the sad, A light will ap - pear, the path - way be clear, And the plow - man will have his re - ward; Earth's bo - som will spar - kle with heart of the work - er be glad; Heav'n's por - tals will o - pen and em - er - ald green, And its grain will be gold - en king; The mu - sic re - sound, And the man - sions of bliss en will ring With rea - pers will come, with loud "Har - vest Home," And the glean - ers will joy - ful - ly sing.

HOLD ON (2)

praise for the brave, who la - bor to save, And the an - gels will joy - ful - ly sing.

Chorus

Hold on, hold on, my bro - ther, hold on, Hold on till the prize is won; Hold hold on, Hold on, hold on to the plow, And wea - ry not now, For the work is al - most done.

“You need not cast yourself away;
for the Lord says, ‘His life need not be a failure.

I will make him Mine.

I will show him that I prize his soul.

I will strive with him, and lift him up.

He must not perish.

I have a special work for him to do.

If he will unite with Me, believe in Me, and work for Me,
his weakest points of character,
notwithstanding his past failures,
will become his strongest points.”
