

WAITING AND WATCHING

“Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching...” (Luke 12:37).

“Christ suffered upon the cross.

He bore the sins of the whole world upon Him.

He was separated from His Father and great bloody sweat came from His brow and moistened the sod of Gethsemane.

He said, ‘If it be possible let this cup pass from me,
nevertheless not my will but thine be done.’

He staggered, and the cup trembled in His hand.

The destiny of a lost world was upon Him.

The cup was balanced and a strong angel came from heaven and strengthened the Son of man.

He hung there upon the cross.

There was a poor thief hung at one side of Christ.

He said, ‘Lord Jesus.’ There was our suffering Saviour with the nails through His hands and His feet.

There that thief asked to be remembered

when He came into His kingdom and what did Christ say,

‘Verily I say unto you today, thou shalt be with me in paradise.’

Now we can see how fully He can save the sinner. God loves the sinner.

Lay hold of Christ’s life and that divinity combined with humanity will bring you out in an experience that you will have rejoicing in the heavenly courts.”
