

I'LL BE A SUNBEAM

"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another" (John 13:35).

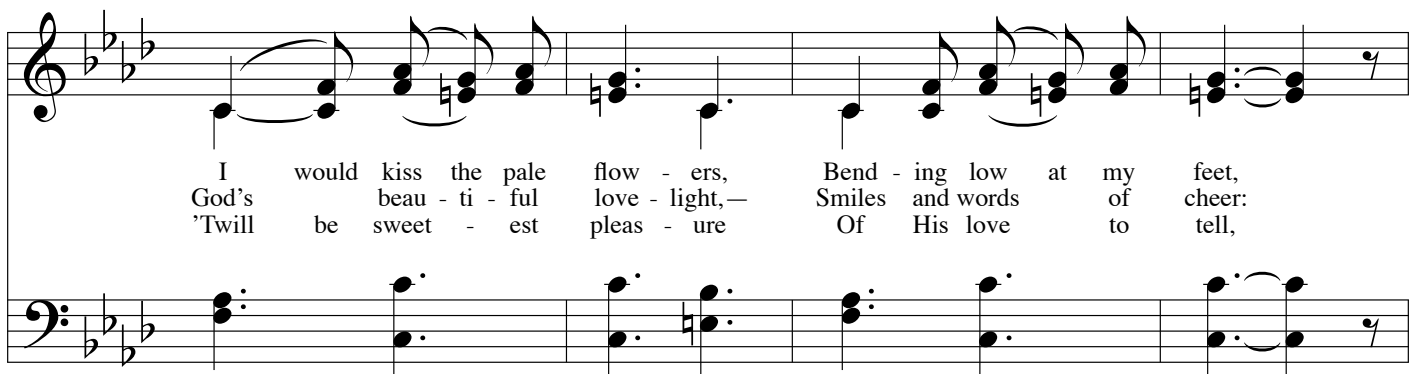

F. E. B.

1. If I were a sun - beam, This is what I'd do,—
 2. So ma - ny dark pla - ces In this world of sin,
 3. If we are like Je - sus— Sun of Right - eous - ness—

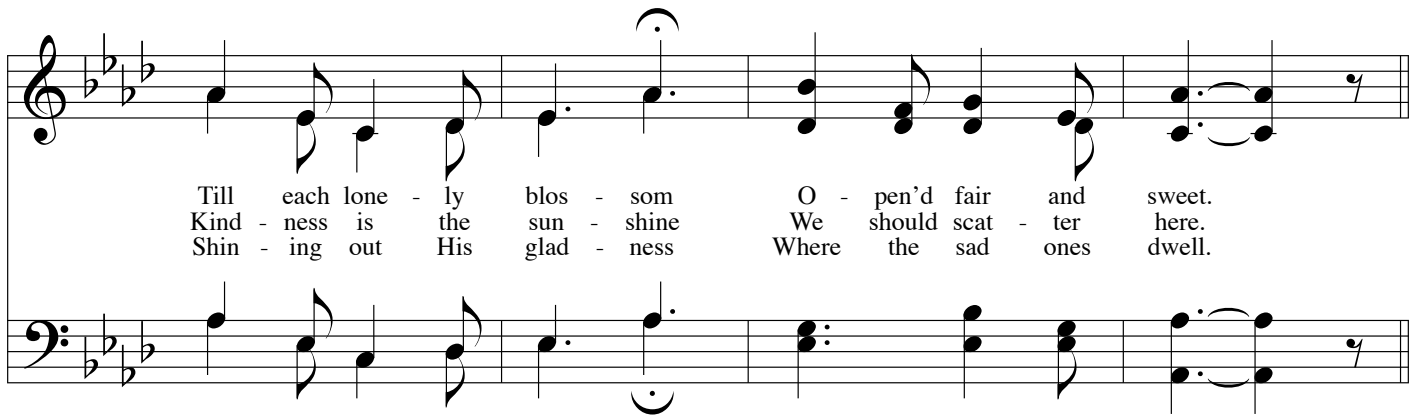

I'd find the dark pla - ces, Search - ing the for - est through;
 Why not be a sun - beam, Let - ting the love - light in,—
 Who left the bright man - sions, Lone - ly lives to bless,

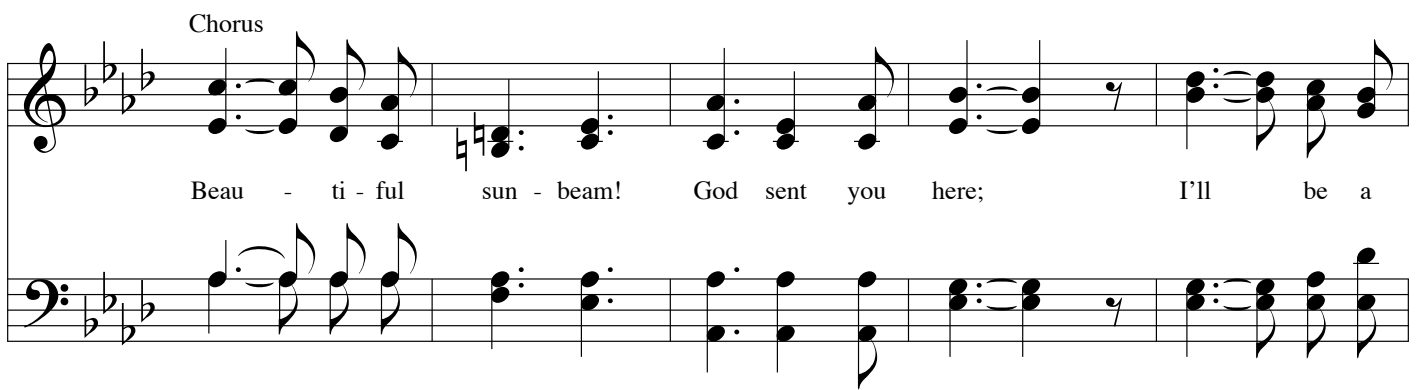

I would kiss the pale flow - ers, Bend - ing low at my feet,
 God's beau - ti - ful love - light,— Smiles and words of cheer:
 'Twill be sweet - est pleas - ure Of His love to tell,

I'LL BE A SUNBEAM (2)

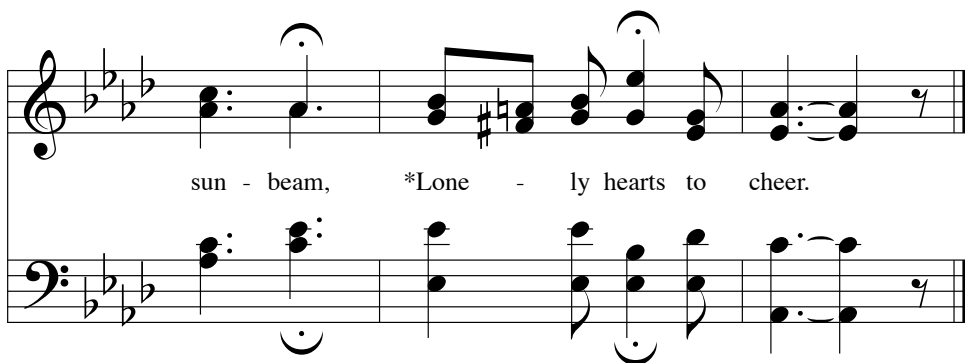

Till each lone - ly blos - som O - pen'd fair and sweet.
Kind - ness is the sun - shine We should scat - ter here.
Shin - ing out His glad - ness Where the sad ones dwell.

Chorus

Beau - ti - ful sun - beam! God sent you here; I'll be a sun - beam, *Lone - ly hearts to cheer.

*Mother's heart; Baby's heart; Brother's heart, etc.

Copyright, 1899, by F. E. Belden

“Let your pleasant,
cheerful words ever be like sunbeams in your family.”