

KNOCKING, KNOCKING

(For male or mixed voices)

Mrs. H. B. Stowe, arr.

F. E. Belden

1. Knock - ing, knock - ing, who is there? Wait - ing,
 2. Knock - ing, knock - ing, still He's there, Wait - ing,
 3. Knock - ing, knco ing, — what! still there? Wait - ing, wait - ing, O how fair! 'Tis a Pil - grim, strange and wait - ing, won - drous fair; But the door is hard to wait - ing, grand and fair; Yes, the wound - ed hand still king - ly, Nev - er such was seen be - fore; Ah! my soul, for such a o - pen, For the weeds and i - vy vine; With their dark and cling - ing knock - eth, And be - neath the thorn - wreath'd hair Beam the pa - tient eyes, so won - der Wilt thou not un - do the door? Wilt thou not un - do the door?

 ten - drils Ev - er round the hin - ges twine, Ev - er round the hin - ges twine.
 ten - der, Of thy Sav - ior wait - ing there; Wilt thou keep Him wait - ing there?
