“Family worship should not be governed by circumstances.

You are not to pray occasionally and,
when you have a large day's work to do, neglect it.
In thus doing you lead your children to look upon prayer
as of no special consequence.

Prayer means very much to the children of God,
and thank offerings should come up before God morning and evening.

Says the psalmist, ‘O come, let us sing unto the Lord:
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,
and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.’

“Fathers and mothers,
however pressing your business,
do not fail to gather your family around God's altar.
Ask for the guardianship of holy angels in your home.
Remember that your dear ones are exposed to temptations.”
