

CAN YOU WAIT?

(For Ladies' Voices.)

F. E. Belden

I. B. Woodbury, arr.

1. Could you wait, could you wait if a bro - ther were lost In the
 2. Could you wait, could you wait if a sis - ter should cry, "I am
 3. In the flood, in the flood and the temp - est - torn night, There are dark, storm - y night, and a flood to be cross'd? If you wall'd in by fire! I'm not read - y to die!"? If her bro - thers now wan - d'ring who long for the right; There are knew how to guide him from dan - ger and death, Would you cot - tage or pal - ace were cir - cled with flame, And you sis - ters as gen - tle as ev - er were known, Whom the

CAN YOU WAIT? (2)

sit heard fires i - her of dly voice per - sing - ing call - ing di - tion sweet you, sur - car - ols call - ing as of by their faith?— name, own: O, the Would you are faith - born a - bove read blood Is the faith - full of love!— Could you lin - ger to their blood Of the some beau - ti - ful deed?— Could you yield - ing to their blood To the flame and the flood,— Can you wait? Could you wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait? Could you wait? wait?