

THE TEMPERANCE CALL

"...Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things" (I Corinthians 9:25).

Anon.

Franz Abt

1. Hear the temp - 'rance call, Free - men one and all, Hear your
 2. Leave the shop and farm, Leave your bright hearths warm; Work and
 3. Hail! our Fath - er - land, Here thy chil - dren stand, All re - coun - try's earn - est cry; See your na - tive land Lift her pray the lost to save; Let your lead - ers be True and solv'd, u - nit - ed, true; In the temp - 'rance cause Ne'er to beck - 'ning hand;— Sons of free - dom, come ye nigh.

 no - ble, free, Fear - less, temp - 'rate, good, and brave.
 faint or pause! This our pur - pose is, and vow.

THE TEMPERANCE CALL (2)

Chorus

Starve the mon - ster from our shore, Let his

ff

cru - el reign be o'er; Starve the mon - ster from our shore, Let his cru - el reign be o'er, be shore, Let his cru - el reign be o'er.