“Only by knowing God here can we prepare
to meet Him at His coming....

“As we behold Christ we shall be changed into His image
and made fit to meet Him at His coming.

Now is the time to prepare for the coming of our Lord.
Readiness to meet Him cannot be attained in a moment's time.
Preparatory to that solemn scene there must be vigilant waiting combined with earnest work.

The union of these two makes us complete in Christ.

The active and devotional must be combined
as were the human and divine in Christ.

So God's children glorify Him.

Amid the busy scenes of life their voices will be heard speaking words of encouragement, hope, and faith.
The will and the affections will be consecrated to Christ.

Thus they prepare to meet their Lord;
and when He comes, they will say, with joy:
‘This is our God; we have waited for him,
and he will save us.’ ”

Numbers 848-950

“Let not your heart be troubled:
ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father’s house are many mansions:
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again,
and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.”

John 14:1-3

“For they that say” that they are strangers and pilgrims on the earth “declare plainly that they seek a country.
And truly, if they had been mindful of that country
from whence they came out,
they might have had opportunity to have returned.
But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly:
wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God:
for he hath prepared for them a city.”

Hebrews 11:14-16

“For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved,
we have a building of God, an house not made with hands,
eternal in the heavens.”

II Corinthians 5:1
