W. B. Bradbury

1. The temp - ter to my soul hath said,
 2. Thus to the Lord I raised my cry;
 3. I will not fear, tho' arm - ed throngs

"There is no help in God for thee;"
 He heard me from His in ho - ly hill;
 Com - pass my steps in all their wrath;

Lord, lift Thou up Thy ser - vant's head;
 At His va - tion - mand the the waves Lord rolled by;
 Sal - va - tion to the Lord be - longs;

My glo - ry, shield, and sol - ace be.
 He beck - oned, and the winds were still.
 His pres - ence guards His peo - ple's path.
