

PERFECT

(Ortonville. C. M.)

Anon.

T. Hastings

1. Let all the hea - then writ - ers join To form one per - fect
 2. Not the most per - fect rules they gave Could show one sin for -
 3. Yet men would fain be just with God By works their hands have
 4. Our faith, and love, and eve - ry grace, Fall far bel - ow Thy book;

 giv'n,
 wrought;
 word;
 Great
 Nor But But
 God,
 lead
 Thy
 per - if
 one
 com - once
 step
 mands,
 truth
 com - pared
 be - yond
 ex - ceed -
 ing
 right - eous -
 ness
 with
 Thine,
 the
 grave;
 broad,
 ness

How mean their writ - ings look!
 But Thine con - ducts to heaven,
 Ex - tend to eve - ry thought,
 Dwell on - ly in the Lord,
 How mean their writ - ings look!
 But Thine con - ducts to heaven.
 Ex - tend to eve - ry thought.
 Dwell on - ly in the Lord.