

NO WORK TOO HUMBLE

(Chenies. 7s & 6s. D.)

T. R. Matthews

Kate Cameron

1. There is no work too hum - ble For Chris - tian hands to
 2. If we are His dis - ci - ples, Call'd by His ho - ly 3. That He, the High and Ho - ly, Whose life - work was com - do; There is no path too low - ly For our feet to pur - name, A por - tion of His for Spir - it We sure - ly ought to plete, Should gird Him - self for la - bor, And washed those hum - ble sue; Our bless - ed Lord and Mas - ter Was ser - vant un - to claim. And tho' the task be me du - nial Which He for so us far hath a feet! And yet we shrink from du - ties Which seem so far a - all; None were too poor and need - y For Him to heed their call. set; His own di - vine ex - am - ple We nev - er should for - get.

 bove This deed of Christ - like meek - ness, This ten - der proof of love!