“ ‘I saw no temple therein:
for the Lord God Almighty
and the Lamb are the temple of it’ (Revelation 21:22).

The people of God are privileged to hold open communion
with the Father and the Son.

‘Now we see through a glass, darkly’
(I Corinthians 13:12).

We behold the image of God reflected, as in a mirror,
in the works of nature and in His dealings with men;
but then we shall see Him face to face,
without a dimming veil between.

We shall stand in His presence,
and behold the glory of His countenance.

“Let us determine that if it costs everything
we will have heaven
and become partakers of the divine nature.”
