

A YEAR OF PRECIOUS BLESSINGS

“...Thy blessing is upon thy people” (Psalm 3:8).

Fanny J. Crosby

I. Allan Sankey

1. A year of pre - cious bless - ings, And glo - rious vic - t'ries
 2. Thou Mas - ter of as - sem - blies, In might - y pow'r de - 3. O Church of God's A - noint - ed, March on the lost to won,— Of earn - est work pro - gress - ing, Its on - ward course has scend, Be - hold our glad re - un - ion, Con - duct it to the win,— Lead forth thy ranks vic - to - rious A - gainst the hosts of run; To Thee, O God, our Re - fuge, Whose good - ness crowns our end; In - spire our hearts with cour - age, And deep - er love for sin; Till at His throne in glo - ry, Where an - gels pro - strate

A YEAR OF PRECIOUS BLESSINGS (2)

days, Thee, fall, With That One - in all Thy Hal - le - lu - jah Thy name may cho - rus earth - ly tem - ple hon - or, We Wher - e'er our crown lift our Him souls in field Lord may of in praise. be. all.

Copyright, 1907, by The Biglow & Main Co., New York. Used by permission

“Soon the old year, with its burden of record, will have passed into eternity, and the new year will have begun.
Let us gather up the treasures of the past year, and carry with us into the new year the remembrance of God’s goodness and mercy.
Let us brighten the future by the thought of past blessings.”