

THE LAST CALL OF MERCY

(Solo or Quartet)

Anon.

Irish Air, arr.

1. The last call of mer - cy now lin - gers for thee; O
 2. O slight not of the warn - ing now of - fered at last, Till
 3. While Je - sus is call - ing, O turn not a - way; For sin - ner, re - ceive it; to Je - sus now flee!

 sum - mer is end - ed and the har - vest is past;
 swift - ly ap - proach - es the dread Judg - ment day;

He oft - en has called thee, but thou hast re - fused; His Till mer - cy, long slight - ed, has left thy heart's door; And The Spir - it in - vites you, O why will you roam? Come of - fered sal - va - tion and love are a - bused.

 par - don, sweet par - don is of thirs - fered no more.
 now to life's wa - ters, ye this - ty ones, come.