

CHIDE MILDLY THE ERRING

Anon.

F. E. Belden

1. Chide mild - ly the er - ring, Kind lan - guage en - dears,
 2. Chide mild - ly the er - ring, Jeer not at their fall;
 3. Chide mild - ly the er - ring, En - treat them with care;

Grief fol - lows the sin - ful, Add not to their tears;
 If strength be but hu - man, How fee - ble were all!
 Their na - tures are mor - tal, They need not des - pair.

A - void with re - proach - es Fresh pain to be - stow;
 What mar - vel that foot - steps Should wan - der a - way,
 We all have some frail - ty, We all are un - wise;

The heart that is strick - en Needs nev - er a blow.
 When tem - pests so dark - en Life's wear - i - some way?
 The grace which re - deems us Must come from the skies.