“Our hope of salvation is an anchor to the soul,
both sure and steadfast,
when it entereth into that which is within the veil.
Anchored in Christ, the soul, like a ship amid the raging elements, tempest-tossed and driven, is immovable.
It is not driven on the rocks or drawn into the whirlpool....
The Lord has pledged Himself to give us strength to enable us to stand.
As we search the Scriptures,
we find ground for confidence, provision for sufficiency.
It is our privilege to say boldly, yet humbly,
The Lord is my helper,
therefore I shall not be moved from my steadfastness.
My life is hid with Christ in God.
Because He lives, I shall live also....
We may triumph in the Lord,
every day acknowledging the fact that our heavenly treasure,
our everlasting portion,
is sure to us through the atonement and righteousness of Jesus Christ.
Believing this ourselves, we shall be able to aid others to see that their only help is in God, and encourage them to flee for refuge to Christ, laying hold on the hope set before us in the gospel.”
