

HEAVEN AT LAST

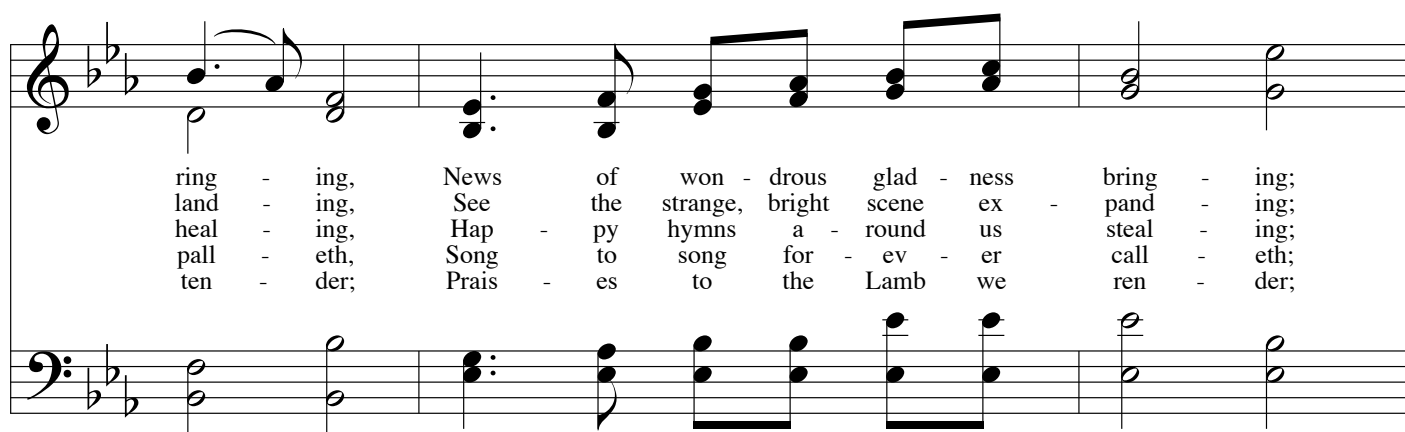

"...Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him" (I Corinthians 2:9).

Horatius Bonar, D. D.

HEAVEN AT LAST (2)

First system of the musical score. It consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The lyrics are: "O, the joy - ful sto - ry of heav'n at last! Heav'n at last,". The melody features a long note on "last!" with a fermata, and the accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support.

O, the joy - ful sto - ry of heav'n at last! Heav'n at last, heav'n at last; End - less, bound - less glo - ry, In heav'n at last.

Second system of the musical score. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are: "heav'n at last; End - less, bound - less glo - ry, In heav'n at last." The melody ends with a final cadence. Above the treble staff, the text "Small notes for final ending." is written.

Small notes for final ending.

“...Look ever to Jesus, and bring heaven into your life here below.
The road to heaven is narrow and the gate strait, but all who will may pass through the gate and walk in the narrow path.
If we reach heaven at last, our heaven must begin here below.
The more of heaven that we bring into life here,
the greater will be our happiness in the home above.”
